

Contents

Foreword.	III
List of abbreviations	XI

PART I

Introduction	1
A. The Aim of the Guide	1
B. Pointers for Use	1
I. Official publications.	1
II. Bibliography	3
1. References in the text	3
2. Further references on issues in international, European, and national environmental law	4
a) Introductions to environmental law/concise textbooks	4
b) Handbooks	4
3. International and European environmental law	5
4. References on special issues in environmental law	5
5. Additional references	5
6. English-language scholarly journals.	6
7. German-language scholarly journals	6

PART II

International, European, and National – German – Environmental Law	7
A. Environmental Protection as a State Responsibility	7
I. Environmental protection as a global challenge	7
II. The concept of “environment”.	8
III. Environmental protection elevated to constitutional status.	10
IV. Environmental protection by means of environmental law	12
Questions on Chapter A.	13
B. Environmental Protection and Environmental Law – Legal Sources of Environmental Law	13
I. International environmental law	13
1. Objectives and development	13
2. International law of treaties.	20
3. Customary international law	20
4. “Soft law”.	21
5. The relationship between international, national and European Union environmental law.	21

6. Enforcement of international environmental law	22
7. Prospects	23
II. European environmental law	24
1. The basis of EU law	24
2. Objectives and development	24
3. Principles	27
a) Principle of a high level of protection	27
b) Precautionary principle and principle of preventive action	27
c) Principle of correction at source	28
d) Polluter-pays principle	28
e) Integration principle	28
f) Principle of subsidiarity and principle of proportionality	28
4. Primary EU law	29
5. Secondary EU law	29
6. The bases of competencies	32
7. The relationship between European environmental law and national environmental law	32
8. Prospects and current challenges	33
9. Selected areas	34
a) Environmental impact assessment	34
b) Nature and biodiversity protection	35
c) Access to justice, information and participation in environmental matters	36
d) Water protection	37
e) Ambient air quality	37
f) Emissions trading	39
g) Environmental liability	41
10. Enforcement of European environmental law	43
a) Supervisory and infringement procedures	44
b) Nullity action	44
c) Proceedings for failure to act	44
d) Public liability action	44
e) Preliminary ruling procedure	44
f) Incidental judicial review of regulations	45
g) Interim relief	45
III. National environmental law in the case of Germany	45
1. Regulating environmental behavior	45
2. Purpose and legal nature of basic environmental and environmental policy principles	46
3. Principles and instruments	46
a) Principles	46
(1) Precautionary principle	46
(2) Polluter-pays versus community-pays principle	47
(3) Cooperation principle	47
(4) Other principles	48

b) Instruments	48
(1) Planning	48
(2) Environmental impact assessment	50
(3) Direct regulation of behavior	51
(4) Indirect regulation of behavior	55
(5) Remedial action by the state.	61
(6) Cooperation	61
(7) Assessment.	62
4. Reform of federalism and German Environmental Code (UGB).	62
a) Reorganization of competencies in environmental law	62
b) “Europe-compatibility” of federalism reform	63
c) German Environmental Code and requirements of European law	63
5. Legal protection.	64
a) Legal protection in environmental administrative proceedings.	64
b) Judicial remedy	65
(1) Forms of action	65
(2) Right of action and of initiating proceedings	65
(a) Third party action	66
(b) Legal protection for municipalities	66
(c) Legal action by associations under environmental law	67
(d) Legal protection against norms	67
(3) Density of judicial control	67
(4) Interim relief.	68
Questions on Chapter B.	69
C. Environmental Administration – Enforcement of Environmental Law	69
I. The European level	69
II. The national level (the case of Germany)	70
III. Power of internal organization	70
1. The European level.	71
2. The national level (the case of Germany).	71
a) The Federal level	71
b) The States (Länder)	72
3. International environmental organizations.	73
4. Non-governmental environmental organizations.	73
Questions on Chapter C.	73
D. Responsibility for Funding	74
E. Current Example of the Interplay between International, European, and National Law: Climate Protection.	74
I. Climate change: the hitherto negated catastrophe.	74
II. International conventions.	75
III. European measures.	80

IV. Legal mechanisms of Implementation on a national level and the constitutional status of climate protection (the case of Germany)	82
V. Summary and prospects.	83
Questions on Chapter E.	84
F. Answers to Questions on Chapters A. to E. (partly in abbreviated form with references to the margin numbers in the text)	84