

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Table of Contents | I |
| List of Figures..... | VII |
| List of Tables..... | IX |
| List of Abbreviations | X |
| 1 Introduction..... | 1 |
| 1.1 The Rising Importance of Humanitarian Operations..... | 4 |
| 1.2 Logistics in Humanitarian Operations..... | 16 |
| 1.3 Survey on Humanitarian Logistics and Performance Measurement | 20 |
| 1.4 Research Approach..... | 28 |
| 2 Research Framework | 35 |
| 2.1 Preliminary Remarks..... | 35 |
| 2.2 Research Design..... | 37 |
| 2.3 Overview of the Research Design..... | 50 |
| 3 Publication Overview | 55 |
| 3.1 Structure of Included Papers and Discussion of the Outlets | 55 |
| 3.2 Paper Category “Development of a PMS for HumLog” | 62 |
| 3.3 Paper Category “Application in Humanitarian Organizations” | 65 |
| 3.4 Paper Category “Design and Development of the IT Artifact” | 69 |
| 3.5 Related Papers..... | 75 |
| 3.6 Connection of Papers..... | 82 |
| 4 Discussion and conclusions | 86 |
| 4.1 Preliminary remarks..... | 86 |
| 4.2 RQ1: How to analyze humanitarian logistics processes?..... | 91 |
| 4.3 RQ2: How to enable continuous measurement and identification of improvement capabilities in humanitarian logistics? | 106 |
| 5 Outlook..... | 126 |
| 5.1 Summary | 126 |
| 5.2 Research Limitations..... | 127 |
| 5.3 Research Outlook..... | 128 |
| References | 130 |
| 6 Appendix | 148 |
| 6.1 Papers included in the Dissertation | 148 |
| 6.2 Survey ”Performance Measurement in Humanitarian Logistics” | 380 |
| 6.3 Overview of Interviews and Workshops..... | 384 |